

Protect-R-Shield Limited Warranty

3.12.14

Shat-R-Shield will guarantee that Protect-R-Shield conformal coatings meet manufactured specifications for thickness and material properties at the time of application. This limited warranty covers the expense of the coating service, which shall be free from defects in the material and workmanship to the agreed project specifications. Shat-R-Shield assumes no liability for failed printed circuit boards or damages caused by defective electronics or damaged printed circuit boards. The condition under which the final product is used is out of Shat-R-Shields control. Any and all information provided should not be a substitute for customer tests to ensure the coated product meets their specific needs.

The warranty is non-transferrable and is effective for a period of 1 year from time of shipment. Shat-R-Shield will refund the cost of the coating service or will coat a new replacement board as provided by the customer if the board failure is determined to be caused by a failure in the conformal coating.

There shall be no responsibility or liability on the part of Shat-R-Shield or its employees for any injury to persons, property damage, loss of income, or other damages that could be claimed from the use of failed circuit board that has been coated.
